

Washington Journal of Law, Technology & Arts

University of Washington School of Law

VOL. 7

SPRING 2012

NO. 4

SYMPOSIUM

CHIEF JUDGE RADER'S CONTRIBUTION TO INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY LAW AND PRACTICE

Faculty Editors: Robert Gomulkiewicz, Toshiko Takenaka & Signe Naeve

Foreword.....	Martin J. Adelman	319
Developments in the Jurisprudence on the Use of Experts.....	Hon. Marilyn L. Huff	325
Tuning the Obviousness Inquiry After KSR	Mark D. Janis	335
Patent Law's Falstaff: Inequitable Conduct, the Federal Circuit, and Therasense	John M. Golden	353
Chief Judge Rader's Contribution to Comparative Patent Law.....	Toshiko Takenaka	379
Antiformalism at the Federal Circuit: The Jurisprudence of Chief Judge Rader.....	Peter Lee	405
Celebrating Contributions of Chief Judge Rader to Patent Infringement Jurisprudence.....	Katherine E. White	427
Fostering the Business of Innovation: The Untold Story of Bowers v. Baystate Technologies	Robert W. Gomulkiewicz	445
Chief Judge Rader's Material Contribution to Geographic Indicator Analysis.....	Signe Naeve	467
Influencing the Evolving IP System and Law of China Through International Outreach.....	Esther H. Lim	501
Efforts to Establish Clear Standards for Exhaustion in Japan.....	Kaoru Kuroda and Eiji Katayama	515