

Pacific Rim Law & Policy Journal

---

VOLUME 22, NUMBER 1

---

CONTENTS

ARTICLES

- Prosecution Review Commissions, the Public Interest, and the Rights of the Accused: The Need for a “Grown Up” in the Room Carl F. Goodman 1
- Confucian Jurisprudence in Practice: Pre-Tang Dynasty Panwen (Written Legal Judgments) Norman P. Ho 49
- Where Are We Now and Where Should We Head For? A Reflection on the Place of East Asia on the Map of Socio-Legal Studies Setsuo Miyazawa 113

TRANSLATION

- Colombia’s Poetic World of Authors’ Moral Rights: Considerations on Imprisoning a Professor for Plagiarism Carlos Castellanos Rubio, Translated by David Cromwell 141

NOTES & COMMENTS

- Punishing the Pen with the Sword?: Colombia’s New, Extreme, and Ineffective Punishment for Plagiarism David Cromwell 157
- Reverse Revolution: Russia’s Constitutional Crisis Sarah E. Cox 179
- Fatal Flaws: New Zealand’s Human Tissue Act Fails to Provide an Avenue for Individual to Give Legally Binding Informed Consent Jennifer J. Howard 209