

Washington Journal of Law, Technology & Arts

University of Washington School of Law

VOL. 10

FALL 2014

NO. 2

CONTENTS

Framing the Issue: Avoiding a Substantial Similarity Finding in Reproduced Visual Art Rachael Wallace	89
Hologram Images and the Entertainment Industry: New Legal Territory? Stephen Anson	109
Consignment Catastrophes: Lessons from New York's Art Gallery Fraud Megan Haslach	125
Getting Beyond Abstract Confusion: How the United Kingdom's Jurisprudence Can Aid in Developing an Analytic Framework for Patent-Eligibility in Light of Alice v. CLS Bank Brendon Beheshti	137