

Pacific Rim Law & Policy Journal

VOLUME 14, NUMBER 2

CONTENTS

ARTICLES

China's War on Graft: Politico-Legal Campaigns
Against Corruption in China and Their Similarities to the Legal Reactions to Crisis in the U.S.

Benjamin van Rooij 289

Computer Crime and Control in Hong Kong

Dr. Kam C. Wong 337

TRANSLATION

Ethical Standards of Japanese Lawyers:
Translation of the Ethics Codes for Six
Categories of Legal Service Providers

Kyoko Ishida 383

COMMENTS

Stepping onto a Moving Train: The Collision of Illegal Logging, Forestry Policy, and Emerging
Free Trade in the Russian Far East

Robert M. Crowley 425

Follow the Leader?: Japan Should Formally
Abolish the Execution of the Mentally Retarded in the Wake of Atkins v. Virginia

Simon H. Fisherow 455

State Responsibility and the High Seas Marine Environment: A Legal Theory for the Protection of Seamounts in the Global Commons

Gregory D. Pendleton 485

U.S. Economic Sanctions Against North Korea:
An Unsuccessful and Sanctimonious Policy Ripe
for Modification

Karen M. Takishita 515

Forsaking the Forests for the Trees: Forestry Law
in Papua New Guinea Inhibits Indigenous Customary Ownership

Alyssa A. Vegter 545

Up in Smoke: Using Cooperative U.S. Forest
Fire Management Policies as a Model for Implementing an Effective Forest Fire Prevention
Program in the Russian Far East

Jim Wilkison 575